Legends & Lattes Travis Baldree

An orc retires from adventuring to start a fantasy city's very first coffee shop. While this dream has been guiding Viv for years, she's still uncertain about many things—whether she should trust the strange artifact she won to truly bring her good fortune, how to best advertise a coffee shop, and how she feels about succubus Tandri, whose artistic talent and clever ideas help the shop take off.

Piranesi Susanna Clarke

Piranesi is the sole inhabitant of a mysterious house with endless rooms full of statues and a surging ocean below. His lyrical and haunting journal guides readers through his beloved labyrinthine home and introduces The Other, a sporadic visitor and the only other living human being in the world - or so he thought.

Good Omens Neil Gaiman & Terry Pratchett

The world is going to end next Saturday, but there are a few problems--the Antichrist has been misplaced, the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse ride motorcycles, and the representatives from heaven and hell decide that they like the human race.

The Conductors Nicole Glover

As a conductor on the Underground Railroad, Hetty Rhodes helped usher dozens of people north with her wits and magic. Now that the Civil War is over, Hetty and her husband, Benjy, have settled in Philadelphia, solving murders and mysteries that the white authorities won't touch.

The Last Unicorn Peter S. Beagle

A unicorn who believes she is the last of her kind in the world, undertakes a quest to discover what has happened to the others with the help of her friends Schmendrick the Magician and Molly Grue.

Tress of the Emerald Sea Brandon Sanderson

Tress is an ordinary girl with no thirst to see the world. Her friend Charlie is the son of a local duke, but he likes stories more than fencing. When Charlie is captured by the mysterious Sorceress who rules the Midnight Sea, Tress must leave her home to rescue him.
